This License Certificate is your receipt that the software, MySQL, has been legally licensed by MySQL AB.

The terms of this certificate are governed by a separate, signed, OEM license agreement.

If you have any problems with MySQL, we would be very grateful if you contact the party that provided this license. However, should this fail for any reason, you can always use the MySQL mailing list mysql@lists.mysql.com or contact support@mysql.com by email, if you have a valid support contract.

If you have any questions regarding the legitimacy of this certificate, please contact MySQL AB by email at licensing@mysql.com.
